We are asking guests to sign up for their desired Lunch With Experts Table in advance. Space is limited for each table and table attendees will be based on a first come first served basis. We will "close tables" when they are full. If tables aren't full by the day of the event, guests may sign up that day. You must be registered for the event to choose your Lunch With Experts Table. If you don't choose a table, you will be in Open Seating.
